

Nick Hellwig

COACH HELLWIG leads the boys varsity team before a game during the Mason Invitational. The boys team looks to contend for a state championship this season. "We have a very fast and talented squad. It should be interesting come the end of the year," said Hellwig.

How many years have you been coaching?

Two years at SHS

What classes do you teach?

American History and World History

What college did you go to?

University of Dayton

Did you play water polo in college?

I played club, I was the captain as well as the coach of the team

How many years have you been associated with water polo?

Thirteen years. Since my freshman year in high school

What are your future goals at Sycamore?

Ultimately create a dynasty, boys and girls contend, and win a state championship every year

