

Men's Hockey Head Coaches '09

Nathan Price

Head Coach, Varsity Hockey

Q&A / Interview

WHAT TEAM(S) DO YOU COACH AND FOR HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN COACHING?

I am the Head Coach for the Sycamore Aviators Varsity Ice Hockey Team. I have been coaching for three years.

WHAT IS YOUR PLAYING BACKGROUND?

I have played hockey for twenty years at many different levels. I have played travel, high school, club, and Men's League.

WHAT IS YOUR COACHING BACKGROUND?

I have assisted in many Ice Hockey Camps, but my coaching career did not begin until I started coaching with Sycamore three years ago.

FAVORITE HOCKEY MOMENT?

The opportunity to attend a practice and meet each individual player on the Los Angeles Kings when many of players were Hall of Fame bound after their career, including Wayne Gretzky.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE TEAM THIS YEAR/WHAT DO YOU EXPECT?

We have an extremely strong team this year, and not only does the coaching staff but also the players have very high expectations for this season. We plan to be a top contender in the League and the State Tournament.

WORDS OF ADVICE TO KIDS THINKING ABOUT PLAYING HOCKEY?

Hockey is a very unique sport. There is no other sport that is as fast paced and exciting as Hockey. It truly is the definition of a team sport.

WHO WILL BE YOUR BIGGEST COMPETITOR(S) THIS YEAR?

Our biggest competitors will be Columbus and Cleveland Teams, but Moeller will always be a special rival that will never go away.

WHY IS HOCKEY THE GREATEST SPORT EVER?

Hockey is the greatest sport ever because it has continuous speed, physicality, and ultimate competitiveness that is unmatched by any other sport.
